Milwaukee Jewish Federation receives 2016 Top Workplaces Award

MILWAUKEE, Wisconsin— The Milwaukee Jewish Federation has been awarded a 2016 Top Workplaces honor by The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

The Top Workplaces lists are based solely on the results of an employee feedback survey administered by WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. Several aspects of workplace culture were measured, including alignment, execution and connection, just to name a few.

“The Top Workplaces award is not a popularity contest. And oftentimes, people assume it’s all about fancy perks and benefits,” said Doug Claffey, CEO of WorkplaceDynamics. “But to be a Top Workplace, organizations must meet our strict standards for organizational health. And who better to ask about work life than the people who live the culture every day — the employees. Time and time again, our research has proven that what’s most important to them is a strong belief in where the organization is headed, how it’s going to get there, and the feeling that everyone is in it together. Without this sense of connection, an organization doesn’t have a shot at being named a Top Workplace.”

Hannah Rosenthal, president/CEO of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation, noted that this award reinforces her feelings that MJF is a dynamic workplace that translates into dedicated service to the community.

“When you have a talented and committed staff, their vibrancy is mirrored in our daily work of ensuring the continuity of the Jewish people and enhancing the quality of Jewish life,” said Rosenthal. “Our donors and the organizations, programs and individuals we support recognize this, and I am thrilled that this was reflected in our survey to receive this prestigious award.”
